

The Valley of Allentown

Presents

“The Ensemble of Hope”

Sunday, July 24th at 3PM

Scottish Rite Cathedral

A Benefit Concert for The Children’s Dyslexia
Center of the Lehigh Valley.

The Ensemble of Hope is an accordion ensemble based in the New Jersey/Pennsylvania area. The group was formed in 2019 to perform a benefit concert for ALS Hope Foundation. The Ensemble continues to support the ALS Hope Foundation and other charities throughout the area.

The ensemble is honored to be playing arrangements made especially for them by renowned accordionist Daniel Desiderio. The arrangements are divided into three or four parts, plus a special part for bass accordion, to interweave melody, harmony, and rhythm. Its repertoire includes show tunes, light classical compositions, Latin songs, waltzes, holiday favorites, and of course-polkas.
